

Bibliography

The following publications dealing with subjects of local interest have appeared up to December, 1947 :

- Antiquaries Journal*, xxvii (1947), 120 ff., 'The development of domestic architecture in Oxford,' by W. A. Pantin.
- Archaeological Journal*, ci (1944, publ. 1946), 1 ff., 'The technique of air-archaeology,' by D. N. Riley.
- Berkshire Archaeological Journal*, xlviii (1944 and 1945, publ. 1946), 1 ff., 'Church bells of Berkshire,' pt. ix, by F. Sharpe; 15 ff., 'The Heads of Winterborne and of Newbury, Berks.,' suppl. article, by L. G. H. Horton-Smith; 31 ff., 'Windsor's experiment in Poor-relief, 1621-1829,' by M. F. Bond; 43 ff., 'Lettering on some monumental brasses of Berkshire,' by H. T. Morley.
- Id.*, xlix (1946, publ. 1947), 1 ff., 'Church bells of Berkshire,' pt. x, by F. Sharpe; 17 ff., 'Berkshire tradesmen's tokens of the 17th century,' by J. G. Milne; 23 ff., 'Some notes on Henry Marten, Regicide, and his family,' by J. C. Cole; 42 ff., 'Communal burial chamber at Park Place, near Henley-on-Thames,' by W. A. Smallcombe; 49 ff., 'Notes on recent antiquarian discoveries in Berkshire,' pt. iii, by F. M. Underhill; 62 ff., 'The late George W. Smith, of Reading, 1869-1945,' by W. A. Smallcombe and A. E. P. Collins; 67, 'Bronze spearhead from Windsor.'
- Connoisseur*, cxvii (1946), 13 ff., 'The Founder's Cup at Oriel College, Oxford,' by N. M. Penzer.
- Id.*, cxviii (1946), 36, 'The Founder's Cup at Oriel College; a reply to Dr. Penzer,' by F. J. Varley.
- Id.*, cxix (1947), 63, note on the Oriel Founder's Cup.
- Journal of Roman Studies*, xxxvi (1946), 43 ff., 'The bronze statuette from Uffington, Berkshire,' by P. J. Riis; 144, 'Roman Britain in 1945.'
- Journal of the British Archaeological Association*, 3rd ser., ix (1944, publ. 1946), 1 ff., 'Some medieval English glazing quarries painted with birds,' by Rev. C. Woodforde [with examples from Yarnton, Oxon.]; 33 ff., 'Medieval paintings on the screens of the parish churches of mid and southern England,' by Rev. W. W. Lillie.
- Newbury District Field Club, Transactions*, viii (1946), 239 ff., 'Medieval roads between Abingdon, Newbury and Hungerford,' by R. N. Hadcock; 250 ff., 'Folklore of some of the prehistoric remains of the Newbury district,' by H. J. E. Peake; 259 ff., 'Recent developments at the Newbury Museum,' by H. J. E. Peake; 272 ff., 'The earliest inhabitants of Newbury,' by H. J. E. Peake; 280 ff., 'Stone hammers in the Newbury Museum,' by H. H. Coghlan; 290 ff., 'Berkshire place names,' by E. N. Farnell.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

- Oxford Historical Society*, new ser., vi-vii, 'Canterbury College, Oxford,' vols. 1 and 2, by W. A. Pantin. To be reviewed.
- Oxfordshire Record Society*, xxv, 'The Thame Cartulary,' vol. 1, ed. by Rev. H. E. Salter. To be reviewed.
- Records of Buckinghamshire*, xiv (pt. 5), 245 ff., 'An agricultural agreement of 1345 at Mursley and Dunton,' by F. G. Gurney; 265 ff., 'Some geological effects of a "cloud-burst" in the Chilterns,' by K. P. Oakley; 281 ff., 'The Shardeloes muniments,' pt. iii; 298 ff., 'Whiteleaf Barrow, Monks Risborough,' interim account by Sir W. Lindsay Scott.
- Id.*, xv (1947), 5 ff., 'The architectural history of Marlow and its neighbourhood,' by H. M. Colvin; 20 ff., 'The birds of Buckinghamshire,' by K. Price; 32 ff., 'The Renaissance monuments of Buckinghamshire,' by K. A. Esdaile; 46 ff., 'A discovery at Thornton,' by E. A. Greening Lamborn; 51 ff., 'The birds of the Tring reservoirs,' by H. H. S. Hayward.
- Transactions of the Bristol and Gloucestershire Archaeological Society*, LXV (1944, publ. 1946), 175 ff., 'The borough of Stow on the Wold,' by M. C. Hill.
- Yorkshire Archaeological Journal*, xxxvi, 349 ff., 'Beakhead ornament in Norman architecture,' by J. Salmon [with local examples].
- ARKELL, W. J., Oxford Stone. Pp. 185. (London: Faber, 1947. Price £1 5s.) To be reviewed.
- DICKSON, A., Chiltern Footpaths. Pp. 179. (London: Chaterson, 1946.)
- TATE, W. E., A Hand-list of Buckinghamshire Enclosure acts and awards. Pp. 46. (Aylesbury: publ. by the Clerk of the Bucks. County Council, 1946. Price 2s. 6d.)
- VENABLES, E. M., Sweet tones remembered: Magdalen choir in the days of Varley Roberts. Pp. 78. (Oxford: Basil Blackwell, 1947. Price 4s. 6d.)