OXFORDSHIRE ARCHITECTURAL AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Society, formed in 1972 by the amalgamation of the Oxford Architectural and Historical Society (founded in 1839) and the Oxfordshire Archaeological Society (founded in 1852), exists to further the study of the archaeology, architecture and history of Oxford and Oxfordshire. In addition to publishing Oxoniensia, the Society provides a programme of winter lectures in Oxford and organizes excursions to places of architectural, historical or archaeological interest; there is a Victorian Group, and through its listed buildings committee the Society attempts to safeguard historic buildings and monuments.

Subscriptions (£8 including Oxoniensia, £3 without the journal) should be sent to the Honorary Treasurer at Dept. of Museum Services, Fletcher's House, Woodstock, Oxford, who will be pleased to supply further information about the Society.
