OXFORDSHIRE ARCHITECTURAL AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY

The Society, formed in 1972 by the amalgamation of the Oxford Architectural and Historical Society (founded in 1839) and the Oxfordshire Archaeological Society (founded in 1852), exists to further the study of the archaeology, architecture and history of Oxford and Oxfordshire. In addition to publishing Oxoniensia, the Society provides a programme of winter lectures in Oxford and organizes excursions to places of architectural, historical or archaeological interest: there is a Victorian Group, and through its listed buildings committee the Society attempts to safeguard historical buildings and monuments.

Subscriptions (£12 individual, £17 family membership) should be sent to the Membership Secretary at 9 Kings End, Bicester, OX26 6DR, who will be pleased to supply further information about the Society.

The Society's website can be found at www.oahs.org.uk.

OXFORDSHIRE RECORD SOCIETY

The Oxfordshire Record Society publishes documents relating to the County of Oxford. The annual subscription, currently only £9, supports the society's work and entitles members to receive volumes at less than the price at which they are sold to the general public. Recent volumes issued by the Society include:

Index to Oxfordshire Probate Records, 1733-1857, ed. D.M. Barratt et al.

Brightwell Parish Diaries, ed. M. Spurrell

Woodstock Borough Court Books, ed. R. Taylor et al.

Oxfordshire Forests, 1246 – 1609, ed. B. Schumer

Applications for membership should be sent to Mr G. Hannah, Hon. Sec., Summerfields School, Mayfield Road, Oxford OX2 7EN. New members receive a volume of their choice from those still in print.
